Ms Laksha Mehta FCCA, CA (Singapore), MBA

Member, Examination Board

Ms Laksha Mehta has about fifteen years of extensive experience working in areas of Financial and Management Accounting. She has held various management roles ranging from Senior Financial Analyst, Head of Strategic Innovation & Cost Audit and Assistant Director of Finance before embarking on SAA-GE as Programme Director, Professional Programme.

She has worked in one of the largest Shipping and transportation companies listed on the Singapore Exchange (SGX) which provided vast experience to hone her financial and management skills. She had opportunities to work with McKinsey and Morgan Stanley teams in improving and enhancing business processes. Through her hard work, she was promoted to Head of Strategic Innovation and Cost Audit, reporting to the President of Shipping unit, advising on financial, statutory and regulatory matters. Later she embarked on her career in a Statutory Board where she took on the role of Assistant Director (Finance).

Ms Laksha is a passionate educator and has taught professional programmes since 2007. Her teaching style has enabled her students to understand the difficult concepts easily. Many of her ACCA students have passed their papers at their first attempt.
