

Mr Lee Fook Chiew

Bachelor's Degree in Commerce & Administration (First Class Honours)
Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand

Mr Lee Fook Chiew is the Chief Executive Officer of the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants (ISCA). In his role, he works with varied stakeholders including government, industry bodies and academics to lead the national accountancy body towards its vision to be a globally recognised professional accountancy body, bringing value to members, the profession and wider community.

Prior to joining ISCA, Mr Lee held key leadership positions in both the private and public sectors. He was the Executive Vice President of Wah Hin & Co. Pte Ltd, a private investment holding company. Mr Lee also served at the Infocomm Development Authority of Singapore (IDA), with his last appointment being Chief Financial Officer & Senior Director (Corporate Development). Concurrently, he held the position of Chief Executive Officer of Infocomm Investments Pte Ltd, a fully-owned subsidiary of IDA. Prior to IDA, Mr Lee helmed various key leadership appointments with Sembcorp Industries Limited Singapore, his last appointment being Senior Vice President & Deputy Group Finance Director.

In the early part of his career, Mr Lee was a member of the Singapore Government Administrative Service, and served as the Deputy Director of Industrial Policy & Manpower Development with the Ministry of Trade and Industry.